

Supply Chain Masterclass

1-2 April 2015

Athenee Palace Hilton, Bucharest

Powered by

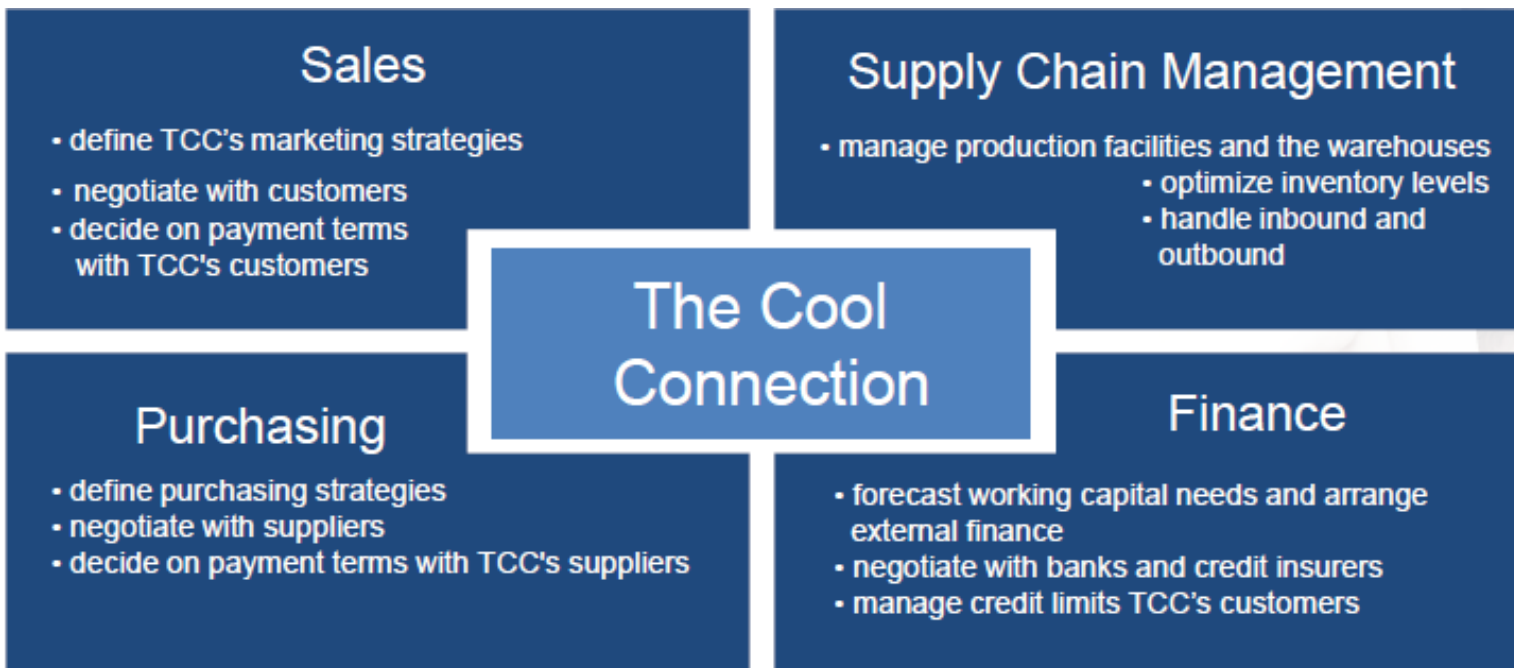

ROMFACTOR

This workshop is structured around an innovative web-based solution. It engages participants in making strategic decisions in the management of a manufacturing company specializing in personal care products.

Working in teams of four, participants will represent the functional roles of sales, purchasing, supply chain and finance. They will be confronted with various real-life, real-time dilemmas. Cross-functional understanding and collaboration are key components, as teams work together to turn the company around.

The language of the workshop is English.

- The Cool Connection is a new web based learning experience that connects the physical and financial supply chain
- As a new management team, the participants need to balance the constraints and manage the interdependencies of the physical and financial supply chain, turning TCC around to a profitable company
